

FINANCIAL LITERACY SUMMIT2017

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK
OF CHICAGO | VISA

What is the Summit?	The Financial Literacy Summit brings together senior international experts to discuss solutions for improving financial capability globally. More than 400 guests attend the Summit in person at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, while tens of thousands more watch the webcast live online and following the event viewing video replays.
11 Years Partnering with the Federal Reserve	Visa Inc. first partnered with the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in 2007 to create and co-host the Financial Literacy Summit. The April 12, 2017 program — Overcoming Barriers to Universal Financial Education — celebrates the 11th year of the Summit. Topics in previous years have included: the future of innovation in financial literacy; the role of government; and advancing financial stability and responsibility. Panel discussions at the Summit seek to advance policy discourse among senior government leaders, and explore what works globally and through the perspective of many different countries.
